

Nomination for Mrs Susan Pearson

Honorary State Life Membership

Susan Pearson joined IPSHA (formerly JSHAA) in 2004, when she became Head of Junior School at Nowra Anglican College. During her 17 years of devoted leadership of the Junior School, Susan was instrumental in growing the enrolments at the School, as well as introducing a Pre-School, always remaining focused on supporting her students and staff.

Susan has always been a dedicated and supportive IPSHA member, keen to be involved and attend IPSHA Meetings, although travelling a considerable distance was required each time. As well as her attendance at General Meetings and Executive Meetings, Susan has also consistently attended IPSHA Biennial Conferences and NSW Country Weekends over her time as a member.

In 2009, Susan co-hosted a very successful NSW Branch Country Weekend at Kiama with Andrew McPhail from Shellharbour Anglican College. In addition, although Nowra Anglican College is located approximately three hours from Sydney, Susan's students have also participated in the Performing Arts Festivals, the Travelling Art Exhibition and the Gala Debating Days.

Susan was also a valued member of the NSW Branch Executive, serving as Branch Secretary from 2006 to 2010. During this period, the role of Branch Secretary was a particularly onerous one. All agendas and reports had to be printed, collated, and then addressed and posted to members prior to meetings. Susan always embraced her role with great dedication and skill. She very calmly and efficiently oversaw all correspondence, agendas, minutes and handbooks and this was completed without administrative support in her school at that time. A real testament to Susan's organisational skills.

At every opportunity, Susan has unreservedly promoted the goals and objectives of the Association. Always friendly and encouraging, Susan has welcomed and supported new members, modelled professional behaviour and has been a valued and respected colleague. Susan has made an outstanding and sustained contribution to the NSW Branch.

It is with great pleasure that I nominate Mrs Susan Pearson for Honorary State Life Membership to IPSHA Ltd (NSW Branch).
