

Alex Cameron Citation for Honorary State Life Membership

Alex has been an active member of IPSHA WA for over a decade. He was Head of Hale Junior School throughout his involvement in IPSHA. Alex was WA's representative on Principals Australia in 2011 and 2012 providing a strong voice on the interests of WA primary students. He then became the APPA representative from 2013 to 2016. Alex attended the meetings involving all education sectors, promoting the independent sector. He provided a thorough and comprehensive recap of the many issues discussed at the meetings enabling WA IPSHA members to be well informed.

Alex left Hale School at the end of 2019 to become Principal of a state primary school, continuing to contributing to the education profession.

May 2021